The responses to public participation questions have been posted on the website. Dave brought them to Karen a short while ago. Please be informed am very concerned about the misrepresentations in the responses.

below:

- The administrators were never directed to cut the budget and have not been uncooperative.
- The Christmas Party has been paid by the administrators for the last years at MY recommendation.
- I did not seek the resignations of any SD81 employees.
- Dave requested that I attend meeting at Redspeed and requested that Mike Deary and Jeremy join us.
